

List of the Participants of Extensive Three Days Training Programme on Independent Directors organised by the Committee on Corporate Governance of the ICAI.

Appreciating the need of corporate sector & to ensure good governance in the country, the Committee on Corporate Governance of the Institute is organizing 3 days Training Programme on Independent Directors across the country. Needless to mention that because of their training and expertise in financial discipline, the chartered accountants are the best professionals to act as Independent Director

In these Training Programme, the participants are getting opportunities to acquire expertise in various facets of corporate governance & the responsibility of Independent Director in the Board as well as in the Audit Committee. Eminent Speakers, professionals, academicians, CEOs, Bureaucrats, Sr. Officials of Ministry of Company Affairs, Govt. of India, Company Directors are addressing and interacting with the participants on the following issues: -

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Corporate Governance - Trends in India and Global Practices - Role & Functions of Board ➤ Board Responsibility to Risk Management ➤ Regulatory Initiatives in India for Better Corporate Governance (Clause 49) ➤ Corporate Governance under Sarbans Oxley Act 2002 ➤ Independent Directors and Interpersonal Relationship with HR Team ➤ Role & Responsibility of Audit Committee & CFO ➤ Independent Director in Audit Committee & Interface with Management ➤ Value Addition for Independent Director - IT enabled Independent Director 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Director as Consultant and Management Advisor ➤ Transparency & Confidentiality - Ethical Requirements ➤ Legal Responsibilities for borrowings and public issues ➤ Financial Review, Obligations to Stock Exchange, GAAP Reporting Internal Control Procedures ➤ Accounting Standards and Auditing Practices - Responsibility of Board of Directors and Audit Committee ➤ Legal Responsibilities under Tax Law ➤ Qualifications in Auditors' Report – Responsibility of Board of Directors and Audit ➤ Panel Discussion ➤ Board Meeting
---	---

The Committee on Corporate Governance has organized seven Training Programmes at Ooty, Mumbai, Ahmedabad, New Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata & Ghaziabad.

The following list contains the names & contact details of the participants.

Disclaimer Clause

The Institute shall not be held responsible for any claims due to errors, omissions, mistakes, inaccuracies of any information in this list.

The list contains information available from the participants at the time of registration for the programme and efforts have been taken to accurately reproduce the same. However, the Institute has no responsibility for the authenticity and accurateness and/or completeness of the information available in the list. The user may use the information entirely on its own risk. This list has been prepared appreciating the need of the corporate sector and in complete good faith. It may be clarified that the Institute is not recommending the names for any appointments. The purpose of these Training Programmes was to empower the members for the crucial corporate assignment and to facilitate the exercise of the corporate sector in this regard. The appointment of Independent Director is a contractual matter between the corporate sector and the professionals and the Institute claims/owns no responsibility or liability in this regard.

The Appointing Authority may use its own discretion and make its own judgment at the time of appointment of Independent Director.